

Allianz Breakdown Assistance

The Allianz Breakdown Assistance service is available for the emergencies covered in this document. Please see your policy schedule to see if you have this cover.

The Breakdown Assistance Service compliments our already established Claims Notification and Emergency Service (please see your policy for details).

Allianz Breakdown Assistance is available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

If you have one of the breakdown emergencies listed on page two, you will need the following telephone numbers:

- 1890 77 99 99 (when calling within the Republic of Ireland)
- 0800 62 61 92 (when calling within Northern Ireland and Great Britain i.e. England, Scotland & Wales)

*Call operator charges may vary

Please note the following terms and conditions apply to the Allianz Breakdown Assistance service:

- We will provide assistance for a maximum of four callouts in any one 12 month period of insurance.
- Cover is provided for your permanent car only.
- The cost of draining or removing contaminated/incorrect fuel type or lubricant is not covered. However, we will tow your car to the nearest garage (max 50km/30M) for assistance. You will have to pay for any work carried out.
- You are only entitled to avail of Breakdown Assistance for the emergencies listed below. If you are claiming for incidents such as an accident, glass breakage, fire damage, or attempted theft, assistance is provided under the Claims Notification and Emergency Service.
- If your car breaks down due to a fault with the car and you avail of Breakdown Assistance, you must ensure that this fault is rectified. If the fault is not rectified, you are not entitled to further assistance within two working days of the original callout.
- Allianz will not be responsible for any expense you incur without our approval or for expenses you incur without our prior agreement.
- You must be present at your car when the repairer arrives. If you are not present at your car and we cannot assist you, you will have to pay for any future assistance.
- When your car has been delivered to a repairer, the costs of repairs and the cost of any replacement parts will be borne by you.
- Your car must be kept in a roadworthy condition and you must ensure that it is maintained in accordance with manufacturer's requirements.
- Where you have broken down in Great Britain, we will not be responsible for the cost of returning your vehicle to Ireland in circumstances where the estimated cost of return and/or storage exceed the current Irish market value of your vehicle.
- The Allianz Breakdown Assistance service covers the islands of Ireland and Great Britain.
- Breakdown Assistance does not cover you for recovery which requires specialist equipment.
- Breakdown Assistance does not cover vehicles over 2.5 tonnes in weight.
- The onward travel or delivery of passengers or goods that you are carrying in a commercial capacity, at the time of breakdown, is not covered under the Allianz Breakdown Assistance service.
- The provision of the courtesy car is subject to availability and if we are unable to provide you with one, you are entitled to avail of the other journey continuation benefits offered by this scheme. However, the cost of all onward travel must be agreed with us first.
- If you avail of a courtesy car, it is your responsibility to ensure you meet the requirements of the Hire Company. The courtesy car is for your personal use only and may not be operated by you for the carriage of passengers for hire and reward.
- If you are unfamiliar with the area you have broken down in and do not know the location of the nearest repairer, Allianz can request that the attending agent provides this information for you. Please be aware that this is for information only and is not a recommendation. Once recovery of your vehicle has been completed, Allianz's involvement in your assistance ends.

- If the courtesy car is due to be returned at a time when the car rental company is closed, please note that you may be required to return it earlier. If you are not in a position to return the car earlier, you may be charged additional rental to cover the period beyond your 48 hour allowance provided under the terms of your Allianz policy.
