8. General Terms and Conditions

8.1 Termination or Cancellation of Cover

8.1.1 You may cancel this policy at any time by letter, returning the certificate(s) of motor insurance. Provided this insurance is an annual contract, covering only a single vehicle, the premium will, upon cancellation, be refunded pro rata less the short period charge of one month's premium, which is retained by Prestige Underwriting Services (Ireland) Limited. No refund will be allowed if any claim has been made during the period for which insurance cover was provided.

8.1.2 We may cancel this policy by giving seven days notice by recorded delivery to your last known address. You will be entitled to a return of premium upon receipt of the certificate(s) of motor insurance.

8.1.3 Where the premium or any part of it was paid with the benefit of a finance agreement and any sum remains outstanding to the provider of the finance at the date of cancellation of cover we may deduct from the sum otherwise payable the amount outstanding to the Finance Company which we will pay directly to them.

8.1.4 If this insurance is a multi-vehicle policy, you will be entitled, upon cancellation, to a return of premium after application of our short period charge, although no return of premium will be allowed if the claims under the policy in the period of insurance have exceeded the entire premium fund. Otherwise, the premium for each vehicle covered will be refunded pro rata less the short period charge of one month's premium, except that no refund will be allowed in respect of any insured vehicle which has been the subject of a claim.

8.2 Contribution

If at the time of any claim there is any other insurance covering the same risk or any part of it we will not be liable for more than our rateable share.

8.3 Right of Recovery

If under the laws of any country in which this insurance applies, we have to make payments which but for those laws would not be covered by this policy, you must repay the amounts to us.

You or the person who caused the accident must also repay us any money we have to pay because of any agreement we have with the Motor Insurers' Bureau of Ireland.

Any payment we have to make because we are required to do so by compulsory insurance law or an agreement with the Motor Insurers' Bureau of Ireland will be taken into account if the policy is cancelled or declared void.

8.4 Fraud

If any claim is in any respect fraudulent or if any fraudulent means or devices are used by you or anyone acting on your behalf to obtain any benefit under this insurance all policy benefits will be forfeited and we will not be liable to pay any outstanding or future claims.

8.5 Instalment Premiums

Where the premium was paid with the benefit of a finance agreement and there remains any sum outstanding we may deduct the amount outstanding to the Finance Company from any claims settlement due in respect of a loss under this policy and pay it directly to them.

Where we have agreed to the payment of premium(s) by instalments, if any instalment is not received by us by its due date, then all unpaid instalments and service fees shall become immediately due. Should the full premium and service fee not be paid within seven days of us giving written notice of non payment this policy will be cancelled immediately upon the expiry of such notice.

Following such cancellation, provided that there have been no claims in the current period of insurance, you will be entitled to a pro-rata return of premium upon receipt of the certificate(s) of motor insurance.

We may at our own option deduct any outstanding premiums due from any claims settlement due in respect of a loss under this policy.

8.6 Motor Insurance Database

You must ensure that the insured vehicle(s) and policy details are notified to us on the effective date, for entry on the Motor Insurance Database of the Motor Insurance Information Centre of Ireland (MIICI), as required by law.

8.7.3 in entering into this contract you have taken all reasonable care in answering all questions in relation to this insurance honestly and to the best of your knowledge.

8.7.4 We may refuse a claim if there has been a change to the subject matter of the policy, and the circumstances have changed to such an extent that the new risk is something which we did not agree to cover. You should therefore inform us, via your broker or agent if your circumstances change, so that we can consider whether any changes are required to your policy, including the following changes:

Providing fraudulent or incorrect information could affect the price of your policy, result in your policy being cancelled and claims being rejected or not fully paid.

As a condition of your policy, it is important that you report all incidents which may or may not give rise to a claim to us.

In order to prevent and detect fraud we may (at any time) share information about you with other organisations and public bodies (including the police) and check and/or file your details with fraud prevention agencies and databases. If you give us false or inaccurate information and/or we suspect fraud, we will record this. We can provide any details required by us under a court order.

We and other organisations may also search these agencies and databases to: help make decisions about the provision and administration of insurance, credit and related services (for you and members of your household), trace debtors or beneficiaries, recover debt, prevent fraud, manage your insurance policies, check your identity for the purposes of preventing money laundering (unless you furnish us with other satisfactory proof of identity) and undertake credit searches or additional fraud searches. On request, we can supply further details of the databases we access or contribute to.

Any information shared by us can be used by other bodies in their decision making process, as can information shared from other bodies be used in our decision making process.

Call recording

Telephone calls with us may be recorded for training, monitoring, audit requirements, quality assurance purposes and fraud prevention and detection. Call recordings may also be supplied to third parties or your insurer as shown on your schedule if they request a call recording in order to investigate a claim, complaint or suspected fraud which we have made them aware of.

Transfer to 3rd parties and outside the EU

In order to deliver our services to you, we may use third party processors (for example credit searches and fraud prevention agencies). Such processing is conducted under contract and we ensure that appropriate data protection and information security assurances are provided.

We may also share your information with an authorised third party supplier appointed by us during a claim, for example a loss adjustor, recovery agencies or approved repairer in order to assist with your claim or provide repair/replacement services. We will only share the information required by the third party and will ensure that appropriate data protection and information security assurances are in place.

In circumstances where we may need to process some of your information using third parties located in countries outside of the European Union, we will take all necessary steps to ensure it is adequately protected. This includes ensuring there is an agreement in place with the third parties which provides the same level of protection as required by the data protection regulations in the EU.

- g) to object to the processing of your personal data, where we do so on the basis of a 'legitimate interest' (see the Legal Basis section above). We will then stop processing the personal data in question unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing that override your right or unless we need to use it in a legal claim.
- h) to restrict processing of your personal data where you feel that it is inaccurate, that we are processing it unlawfully or that we no longer need it or where you have invoked your right to object (as set out in Section 8 (g) above).
