Nil	0%
One	15%
Two	18%
Three	25%
Four	35%
Five	40%
More than five	40%

We will allow a no-claim discount on your policy provided we do not pay out any claim in any period of insurance. The discount amount applied for the corresponding number of years claims free is illustrated above.

If we pay for any claim in any period of insurance, we will reduce your no-claim discount to 0% at the following renewal.

Where a claim is settled prior to the renewal date of the policy but where a renewal invite has already been issued to you , we will reduce your no-claim discount to 0% at the next renewal occurring after the renewal which has already been invited.

Any payment made in respect of jury service claims will not affect your no-claims discount.

You should note that while some claims will not impact your no-claim discount on this policy you may still be required to disclose them in the course of applying for another insurance policy as any claim(s) made by you and members of your household may impact your ability to obtain another insurance policy.

You cannot transfer your no-claims discount to another person.

Section 6 - Home insurance claims

How to make a claim

If you have experienced a problem that may result in a claim phone our Property Claims Service on 1800 147 147 as soon as you can for help and guidance with your claim.

How we settle claims

At our sole discretion, we will decide how to settle your claim. We may arrange for a contractor appointed by us to repair, reinstate or replace the lost or damaged property. Where we opt to use our discretion to reinstate property to settle a claim, we will provide you in advance with details of the scope of the work that has been approved and the cost.

If we decide to pay a cash amount to settle the loss or damage we will not pay more than a contractor appointed by us would have charged for the repair, replacement or reinstatement.

If we decide to settle your claim with the payment of an agreed cash sum, stage payments of the agreed sum can be made by us and a portion of the agreed sum will be retained by us , as permitted by the Consumer Insurance Contracts Act 2019, until the agreed works are completed within the agreed scope.

When these agreed works have been completed within the agreed scope and supporting invoices and receipts or any additional evidence we may reasonably request have been provided to us to confirm the total cost incurred, the full agreed sum will be paid.

Policy excess

We will apply the appropriate excess as shown in your policy schedule against all claims.

Under insurance

If at the time of any loss or damage we deem you to be under-insured (i.e.. the sum insured shown on the policy schedule, under any section, is deemed, by us, to be less than the total reinstatement value of that section), we may reduce your claim under that section by the same percentage for which you are under-insured.

Matching items

We will not pay for the cost of replacing any undamaged items forming part of a pair, set, collection, suite or larger item. In the case of floor coverings, we will only pay for the cost of replacing the damaged part or, if a match is not possible, the floor covering in the room where the damage happened.

Reinstating the sums insured

We will not reduce the sums insured in respect of buildings and/or contents by the amount of any claim we may pay.

Wear and tear, loss in value or deterioration

If we accept a claim, we will settle it without taking off an amount for normal wear, tear, loss in value or deterioration if:

- you have kept the buildings in good repair;
- the sum insured on buildings equals the full cost of reinstating them;
- the buildings have been reinstated; or
- in the case of contents, the claim does not relate to household linen, sports equipment, bicycles or floor coverings more than 12 months old.

Other insurances

If at the time of a claim another policy covers any item or event insured under this policy, we will only pay our proportionate share of the claim regardless of any exclusions which apply under the other policy.

Arbitration

Any dispute between you and us (about our liability over a claim or the amount to be paid), must be referred (within 12 months of the dispute arising) to an arbitrator appointed jointly by you and us. If you and we cannot agree on an arbitrator, the President of the Law Society of Ireland will decide on the arbitrator and the decision of that arbitrator will be final. If you do not refer such a dispute to arbitration within 12 months, we will treat the claim as abandoned.

General policy conditions - all sections

Keeping to policy terms

1 We will only make a payment under this policy if you keep to the following conditions.

a You are under a duty to answer all questions, which we ask, honestly and with reasonable care. The answers in any proposal, statement of fact, declaration and any other document provided by you to us for this insurance must be true and complete. Any proposal, statement of fact, declaration and any other document provided by you to us will form part of your contract with us.

b You or any person on whose behalf you are making a claim must keep to the terms and conditions of the policy.

c You may lose all benefit and cover under this policy if, since the start date of the policy or your last renewal date (whichever is the latest), there is a material change in your circumstances (which includes any new circumstances or changes in circumstances which alter the subject matter of this policy or the nature of the risk underwritten).

To ensure you are fully protected, please tell us immediately of any changes in respect of circumstances relating to you, other members of your household or the property insured.

Examples of changes you must tell us about include, but are not limited to the following;

- if your home is, or is likely to become unoccupied;
- if your home has not been permanently lived in, or is unlikely to be lived in, for 60 consecutive days;
- if there is a change of use or occupancy at your residence that differs from what is printed on your schedule / statement of fact document such as the letting or partial letting of the home or any of the outbuildings;
- the property becomes unoccupied or partially unoccupied for any period of time due to renovations or building works;
- if the physical state of your buildings deteriorates in any way, including but not limited to where there is evidence of subsidence, e.g., cracking on internal or external walls.

d You must take all reasonable steps to prevent any accident, injury, illness, disease, loss or damage, and keep your home (and your caravan, if covered) in good repair.

Cancelling the policy

2 You may cancel the policy at any time by contacting us to provide instruction to cancel the policy. The instruction must be provided by e-mail, in writing or via recorded telephone call.

We may cancel the policy, or any section of the policy, by giving you 14 working days' notice by post to your last known address.

Automatic benefit

3 If we amend or replace any policy wordings, conditions, exclusions, or endorsements during the period of insurance which improve, broaden or extend the cover without needing to pay an extra premium, you will automatically benefit from these improvements.

Joint policyholders

4 When there is more than one person named as the insured on the policy and we receive instructions from one of those named insured people, we will treat it as though each insured person has given us the instructions and that all insured persons agree and consent to those instructions being given to us. We will accept the instructions received on face value. It is not our responsibility to check whether the person who so instructs us has the permission and consent of the other persons insured.

Fraud

5 You may lose all benefit under this policy if any claim is fraudulent in any way or if you or anyone acting on your behalf has used any type of fraud relating to this insurance policy (this includes exaggerating a claim, making a claim which is in any way false, or use of any false or stolen documents when making a claim).

You may lose some or all benefit under this policy if you have not answered all questions, which we have asked, honestly and with reasonable care (including any answers or information you have provided to us that may have affected our decision to provide cover or in calculating the policy premium) or if you have used any false or stolen documents in applying for the cover provided under this policy.

In the event of any fraud relating to this insurance policy we may cancel the policy and retain the premium paid.

Index-linking

6 We continuously monitor a number of rebuilding and household goods indices and may adjust your building and contents sums insured each year using the index that we feel best protects you against the effects of inflation.

However, in doing this we do not take account of the significant differences in customers' homes and we strongly recommend that you calculate your rebuilding costs using the Society of Chartered Surveyors' guidelines and carry out an inventory to work out the replacement costs of your home contents. We will be happy to adjust your sums insured in line with this.

You are a responsible for ensuring that your sums insured represent the full reinstatement value of your buildings and/or contents.

You can find helpful guidelines on the Society of Chartered Surveyors' website at http://www.scsi.ie.

This does not apply if the person you are selling to has arranged other insurance.

Financial institution noted on policy

10 When a financial institution is noted on your policy:

- we will advise the financial institution of the lapse or cancellation of cover or restriction of cover;
- we may issue settlement cheques in joint names of you and the financial institution in respect of claims on the buildings section of the policy.

Sanction Limitation and Exclusion Clause

11 No (re)insurer shall be deemed to provide cover and no (re)insurer shall be liable to pay any claim or provide any benefit hereunder to the extent that the provision of such cover, payment of such claim or provision of such benefit would expose that (re)insurer to any sanction, prohibition or restriction under United Nations resolutions or the trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of the European Union, United Kingdom or United States of America.

Keeping your home safe and secure

Security

- All outside doors should be protected by at least one three-lever mortise deadlock
- If you have a patio door, fit locks to the top and bottom of the door to prevent it from being lifted off its tracks
- All windows, including skylights (which a burglar could reach by climbing a ladder, drainpipe or by climbing onto a flat roof), should be closed and fastened
- Install security lighting at the front, back and side of the house to scare off burglars. Security lights can be activated when they detect movement or when it gets dark outside
- Ideally your alarm system should include devices (such as sensors and switches) fitted on doors, windows and areas such as hallways and landings. Your alarm must be installed by an intruder alarm company approved by the NSAI (National Standards Authority of Ireland), EQA Ireland, Management Systems Certification Ltd., SSAIB or CerticCS. The installer should hold a PSA (Private Security Authority) licence
- Ideally you should have your alarm monitored. A monitoring station provides cover 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Give someone you trust and who can respond quickly to an alarm signal, a key to your home and give the monitoring station their contact details
- Don't keep your house keys or car keys in the hallway or on the hallway table. It might be easy for a burglar to steal them by reaching through the letterbox or breaking the glass in the front door
- Fit a spyhole, door chain or limiter (which helps to stop the door being forced open from the outside) to your front door so you can check a stranger's identity before you decide whether to let them in
- Always lock your doors and outbuildings, and close and fasten your windows if you're leaving your house
- Use a timer or ask a friend or relative, to turn lights on or off at certain times if you are away from home
- Do not make it obvious that you are away – have your mail held by An Post's Mail Minder service
- Lock away any garden tools or ladders so that a burglar cannot use them to break into your house. Use a heavy-duty padlock to lock your garden shed.

Safety

- Please 'think safety' in your home – accidents will happen and can happen to you
- Fires in the home can start in so many ways and spread very quickly
- Consider installing approved smoke detectors
- Take particular care with portable heaters, fuels and with open fires – and make sure you guard all open fires before the family go to bed
- Never smoke in bed and take care with cigarette ends and use ashtrays
- Have chimneys which you use regularly swept at least twice a year
- Watch electrical equipment for wear and tear and look out for frayed or damaged

flexes. Unplug all electrical appliances last thing at night

- Check your wiring at least every 10 years. Gas appliances and flues need regular servicing
- Take care in the kitchen – cooking has obvious fire hazards and there is also the risk of burns and scalds. Use sharp knives and blades carefully – even a can opener can cause an injury
- Keep a suitable fire extinguisher in working order. You should always keep a dry-powder extinguisher and fire blanket in the kitchen, where chip-pan fires can be a constant danger. Familiarise yourself with how all fire-extinguishing appliances work in your home
- Avoid using chip-pans. Deep-fat fryers are much safer
- Children are involved all too often in domestic accidents. Make your home safer for them and for elderly people
- Don't try to 'do it yourself' unless you know exactly what you are doing.
