

Subject: CP II6 and the Addendum to the Consumer Protection Code 2012

Dear Broker Partner

The below table outlines the standard commission rates applicable to our Chubb Ireland product lines for both new and renewal business. In certain circumstances commission rates may vary and/or additional remuneration may be paid to certain insurance intermediaries.

This would be the case, for example, where services are provided to the insurer by an intermediary. Any such service fees are subject to individual contractual agreements between Chubb Ireland and the relevant insurance intermediary and in all cases are subject to compliance with all legal, licensing and regulatory obligations.
